Thanks to all who prepared food and all who came to the Picnic at Lake Katherine last Sunday. We had kids running around, adults sitting in the shade visiting with each other, and everyone had a hamburger or hot dog and potato salad, baked beans, and a cookie on their plates. Thank you--- really, really thank you. It was a wonderful afternoon!!!

A father is a wondrous man when little girls are small. He can fix most everything, he is so strong and tall. And then one day, around teen age, he takes a second place to some homely, skinny boy with pimples on his face. And then one day, she’s all grown up and meets the man who steals her heart and braves to ask Dad for her hand. And when Dad walks her down the aisle she’ll suddenly realize the things she loves about her man are the very things that make her love her Dad!
